Glossary of Terms

30 Day Trial Customer is a person who chooses to try our fully functional online digital vCard with all the features for a 30 day free trial period. At the end or before of the trial period expires the user has the opportunity to up grade either to vCard ONE, vCard PRO, or vCard Advisor When they do upgrade they are attached to the first upline qualified active Advisor. If they do not choose to upgrade after the 30 day free trial expires the account will become inactive.

Preferred Customer (PC) is a paying customer of either the vCard ONE or vCard PRO product.

Commissionable Volume (CV): The value assigned to a product that determines the amount of commission paid when the product is sold by a vCard Advisor.

Holding Tank: is where Free Trial Customer goes until they upgrade to either a PC or a vCard Advisor. When they do upgrade they are attached to the first up line qualified active Advisor.

National Advisor Leadership Bonus: This 2% bonus is paid on two generations of National Advisors once you are a National Advisor. If you were a NA and I became a NA you would get paid on my whole organization down to the next qualified NA that would be generation 1 and you would get paid on one under that NA down to the next qualified NA that would be generation 2.

Dynamic Compression: works as follows in our six level program, if you were a National Advisor you would be able to receive commissions on six levels deep. If I were a executive Advisor I would be able to receive four levels deep but; if I were six levels deep you would be paid on the last two I was leaving on the table also in addition of the six levels you have already received. In closing whatever the Advisor leaves on the table it rolls up to the next qualified active Advisor. What the program does is it searches to the up line to see who is the next qualified to get paid those many levels (6).

Rank: is the level of achievement in the compensation plan that determines how much commission the Advisor is eligible to earn. The rank is determined by the number of personals and organizational qualified active Advisors and not more than 50% from any enrollment tree leg can count toward rank qualifications.

Active Qualified Advisor: is a person that has met the qualifications of a vCard Advisor and or has renewed their package each anniversary year for $129.00 with 100CV
